

PVAW Communication Masterclass:

Utilising storytelling techniques to communicate the drivers of violence against women

Thursday, 1 March, 2018
10:00 AM - 4:00 PM

This full day masterclass aims to build your confidence and skills in crafting and sharing stories that communicate the drivers of violence against women.

Masterclass covers:

- Key elements of a primary prevention story
- Ethical considerations developing and sharing stories
- Tailoring for your audience or setting
- Key messages and the drivers of violence against women
- Story crafting techniques and story shapes

Prerequisite knowledge

This masterclass is designed for practitioners working in the PVAW sector. Participants are required to have a strong understanding of violence against women, primary prevention, Change the Story, and the causes/drivers of violence against women as this content will not be covered in the workshop.

Workshop facilitators:

- Kiri Bear is a professional facilitator, trainer and project manager. With 15 years' experience in youth, community and government services, Kiri has been at the forefront of the PVAW field. Kiri is also an artist, poet and a storyteller.
- Linden Deathe is a gender equity practitioner, facilitator and training coordinator at Women's Health Victoria, responsible for the design and delivery of professional development programs including the PVAW Communication Masterclass.

Venue: Women's Health Victoria, Level 8, 255 Bourke St, Melbourne

Cost: $225.93 or $158.48 (student/unemployed)

Registration through Eventbrite

Enquiries to: Linden Deathe, Health Promotion Officer, (03) 9664 9313, training@whv.org.au