Most Victorians oppose overhaul of abortion laws, polls find The Age. 29/01/14

It's good to see common sense prevail in the recent poll on abortion. Most people are in favour of protecting women's right to choose an abortion and recognise the importance of maintaining safe and accessible abortion in this state.

The poll sends a clear message that Victorians are opposed to a change in the law on abortion. It's important that the personal beliefs of the minority don't jeopardise the freedom of Victorian women to make decisions about when they have children.
